[As you told me you did not intend to go on to [J. Colvin] Randall's sale, I send my bids to another...]

[As there are many J. Colvin Randall sales, [illegible] ...]

Dear Sir!

Have you told me yet that not intend to go on to Kendall's state, & send my bill to another.
I need not say how ago about the candelabra (I do not know how I have forgot
a name for them I am proof to the color, and perfect with candelabra.
The 1801 Academy I sent an unbleached bed cover.
It is not as sharp as the one you bought for him, but the weave is better being all vegetable.
I have adapted for photographic use from my file:

If I get the piece at a reasonable price
I will sell mine to you cheap. R.'s piece is not uncirculated as described for the head & hair is rubbed, quite a good deal.
The 1797 15 stars, is not nearly so sharp as the one you bought for me at the Collier sale for $7.
I compared them. R.'s is very weakly struck.
When will you be ready to get out my book?
This about ready - If I can give you any further information in Regard to the pieces in R.'s sale I shall be glad to do so. Very truly Howard P. Newlin.

Mrs H. Chapman
